Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ November 1, 2020

Solemnity of All Saints

PASTOR'S CORNER:

Today is a great feast day of All Saints, rejoicing with all creation, for the gift of the saints, who have been raised to the glory of the Altar and had been considered by the church as worthy of heaven by the virtue of their life and works. This day marks a very important concept in our Faith, that it is our belief the saints are worthy of praise and veneration. And this is due to their actions in life, and in how they have faithfully lived their life in accordance with the ways and teachings of our Lord. They are not perfect people. But we can attest that from their examples, they changed their ways and had a turnaround in their lives, and through their new lives, they gained justification in their faith and actions. The only reason a saint becomes one of those saints, recognized by everybody, canonized by the church, is because they gave examples of loving, love, God's love, and they were great at it. As we celebrate the Feast of All Saints Day, what matters is that we too may follow the examples of the saints, embracing the goodness of God and rejecting all works of Evil.
