Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ November 8, 2020

PASTOR'S CORNER:

As the church year begins to draw to a close, the liturgy draws us to some basic spiritual reminders: wisdom and the kingdom of God. Wise Christians find Jesus in the most ordinary experiences of daily living: in the people we meet, the daily events we encounter one another, and situations in which we find ourselves, and we carefully make their daily choices for God.

Therefore, the meeting of spiritual needs and spiritual development itself comes through routine, mundane attention to ordinary spiritual disciplines — making sure we have enough spiritual oil: oil of compassion and mercy, oil of patience, sympathy, and forgiveness.

The wise bridesmaids remind us to stay awake and preparation of our spiritual alertness is important in our Christian lives. To be awake, in our mind and heart, is to live from that truest part of ourselves, from our hearts.

How is Jesus inviting us to stay awake this day? How is Wisdom inviting us to stay awake to ourselves and God in each moment?
