Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ October 11, 2020

PASTOR'S CORNER: From the moment of conception, man has desired to seek God and build a personal relationship with him. Our God presents himself as a personal God and takes a deep interest in the wellbeing of each person. He comes to us as a God who is concerned, caring, and loving and takes interest in the growth of each person. The 1st reading prophet Isaiah speaks of the abundant providence of the Lord of hosts for all peoples, and in the 2nd reading, St. Paul is reminding us not to abandon or forget God in our lives. The Gospel God opens his invitation to whosoever is to be found. All are accepted, on condition that he wears proper wedding garment that makes the person worthy of the kingdom. Every time we respond to Christ's call in our daily lives, we say yes to the wedding invitation. It might not involve a big feast or dancing. But it always involves his presence among us, God Emmanuel, Amen.

MAY THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS BE LOVED EVERYWHERE!

ALTAR FLOWERS given by Kyle and Alexis Stenlake In Honor of their Marriage and In Memory of all deceased Family Members.
